Durham Feb. 11. 1835

Mr. A. Richardson.

Durham N.H. 11. 1835—

Bro. Phelps,

I was gratified to hear that you with Mr. Thompson had been so near at Dover. I should have gone to Dover to hear Mr. T. but the evening he lectured was the evening of my nuptials. Mrs. R. returned with me yesterday, and both of us are desirous that you & Mr. T. should make it convenient to spend one night in Durham on your return. Our people are anxious to hear more on the interesting subjects of Slavery. If you travel by Stage, after your arrival at Dover, take a chance to this place, and the Stage here for Boston the next morning is Boston Stage passes directly by our door. If either of you can give us a lecture, I should be glad to know on what evening that I could give proper notice. Please write if it is practicable, and if so on what evening.

Mrs. R. desires her special regards to Mr. T. & yourself.

Your friend &c.

John Richardson
